

SEVEN GENERATIONS CHARTER SCHOOL	SECTION:   STUDENTS
	TITLE:       218 – CORPORAL PUNISHMENT
	ADOPTED:   September 13, 2011
	REVISED:

Policy	Seven Generations Charter School will not use corporal punishment as a disciplinary measure for any student misconduct, including, but not limited, to those instances as enumerated in Seven Generations Charter School’s Code of Conduct. In addition, Seven Generations Charter School administration will comply fully with the regulations of 22 Pa. Code §12.5 as set forth fully below:
Delegation of Responsibility	The Board of Trustees of Seven Generations Charter School authorizes the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) or his/her designee to enforce this policy
Reference	State Board of Education Regulations – 22 PA School Code 12.5 – Corporal Punishment (a) Corporal punishment is defined as physically punishing a student for an infraction of the discipline policy. Use of corporal punishment is prohibited. (b) Teachers and school authorities may use reasonable force under the following circumstances: (1) To quell a disturbance. (2) To obtain possession of weapons or other dangerous objects. (3) For the purpose of self-defense. (4) For the protection of persons or property.